Good Morning Cardinal Performance Performers & Volunteers

After speaking with the Cardinals this morning we are hopeful that we will be able to perform as planned on the field today. There is still a threat of rain in the forecast, so things may still change last minute. However our team has been hard at work yesterday and today to come up with a back-up plan that will make this a fun and memorable event for all involved.

We will put any new updates on the Olympiad & Team Central Facebook pages. Please keep an eye out for any updates.

You can reach our Corporate Facebook Page at <https://www.facebook.com/OlympiadGyms/>

Team Central's Facebook Page is: <https://www.facebook.com/TeamCentralGymnasticAcademy/>

Thank for your patience and understanding on this matter.

Sincerely,

Olympiad & Team Central
Cardinal Performance Team
